Household Income

M. Fitch, 1850 Census Pennsylvania

M. Fitch	farmer	Age 60	b. 1790
Ann	wife	Age 60	b. 1790
Peter		Age 19	b. 1831
Mary		Age 16	b. 1834
Anna		Age 20	b. 1830
Caroline		Age 14	b. 1834

Not sure what the identity of this man is as the names are all unfamiliar. It may be that they were there in 1850, but not before. Will have to check the other census records. Could be a relative from Connecticut. It is too old for Morgan or any of Nathaniel and Sarah Keelers children. About the age of John's younger children.

Not sure if there was a Mason Fitch or not, but aware of A Mason Fitch Alden north of Falls. If so this would be a descendant of Rev. James Fitch, probably.

A. Fitch, 1850 Census, Pennsylvania

A. Fitch	Age 24	b. 1826
Lydia Fitch	Age 23	b. 1827
(probably Allen and Lydia Beemer)
A. Bees ??? maybe Beemer, mother? father?	Age 74	b. 1776

Allen is the son of Nathaniel Fitch and Sarah Keeler, brother to our Indiana Nathaniel.

J. Sickler, 1850 Census, Pennsylvania

J. Sickler	farmer	Age 35	b. 1815
Elizabeth	wife	Age 30	b. 1820
James Sickler		Age 00	b. 0000
John Sickler		Age 00	b. 0000
Jacob Sickler		Age 00	b. 0000
Elizabeth Sickler		Age 00	b. 0000
Lucinda, or Lucintia		Age 00	b. 0000
Gideon or Gidiah		Age 00	b. 0000

Not sure what Sickler this is. Sarah Fitch married John Sickler. And Abigail Fitch married Jacob Sickler. Jacob Sickler was born about 1810 and do not have a date as yet for John Sickler.

Probably John & Sarah
(ASH) says they had 4 boys between 1841-1852
Birth dates are right or close

But these are not
John & Sarah's boys
so will have to do more checking.

1850 WYOMING COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA CENSUS:

Joseph or James Fitch, Northmoreland Township

Joseph Fitch or
James Fitch	Farmer	Age 51	b. 1799
Anice, or Amy	wife	Age 44	b. 1806
Nancy Fitch		Age 25	b. 1825
Franklin Fitch		Age 23	b. 1827
Rachel Fitch		Age 21	b. 1829
Henry ???		Age 19	b. 1831
Josah Fitch Sarah?	Female	Age 17	b. 1833
Joseph Fitch		Age 14	b. 1836
Martha Fitch		Age 13	b. 1837
Caroline Fitch		Age 12	b. 1838
Hannah Fitch		Age 10	b. 1840
George Fitch		Age 8	b. 1842
Catherine Fitch		Age 6	b. 1844
C. Lafaner		Age 6	b. 1844
I. Bouce		Age 4	b. 1846

Very possibly this is Joseph, son of Gideon, son of John Fitch. If it is James, I am not sure who it is as Gideon did not have a son named James and the only two in that age bracket would be John and Joseph. John died in 1832.

William Fitch, Northmoreland Township, PA, 1850

William Fitch	Farmer	Age 31	b. 1819
Sarah Fitch	wife	Age 34
Charles Fitch		Age 6	b. 1844
Judson Fitch		Age 3	b. 1847
Lorenzo Fitch	brother	age 25	b. 1825

William Fitch is the son of Gideon, son of John and the Lorenzo that is staying with him is his youngest brother. Lorenzo was married in 1857. Gideon the father had died in 1843.

Giles Fitch,	Farmer	Age 45	b. 1805
Emily Fitch	wife	Age 43	b. 1807
Asher Fitch		Age 16	b. 1834
James Fitch		Age 14	b. 1836
Hannah Fitch		Age 10	b. 1840
Giles Fitch, Jr.		Age 5	b. 1845
Melucia, Melissa Fitch		Age 1	b. 1849

Giles Fitch is the son of Nathaniel Fitch I, who is the son of John Fitch, Nathaniel is the above Gideon's brother. So Giles would be a son to Nathaniel I, a grandson to John, and a nephew to Gideon. Also Giles is our Indiana Nathaniel's brother.

Census .... PENNSYLVANIA 1850

AVERY ELLSWORTH, Wyoming County, Falls Township

Avery Ellsworth	52	Male	Farmer	born N.Y.	1798
Susan	51	Fem.	wife	PA.	1799
Augustus	28	Male		PA	1822
Giles/Giba	22	Male		PA	1828
Susan	20	Fem.		PA	1830
John	17	Male		PA	1833
Hannah	15	Fem.		PA	1835
Oliver	11	Male		PA	1839

Avery Ellsworth married Susan Fitch, daughter of Gideon Fitch, son of John Fitch and brother to Nathaniel Fitch. Another place I read the list of children as: Augustine, Gideon, Silsby, Susan, Zibba, Hannah, John, and Oliver. This reference found _____

C. DEWITT, Wyoming County, PA

C. Dewitt	28	Male,	Farmer	born N.Y.	1822
Emeline	29	Fem.	wife	PA	1821
William	1 or 3	Male		PA	1847/1849

This would be Clinton DeWitt, who married Emeline, the daughter of Gideon Fitch, son of John Fitch.

A. ELLSWORTH, Wyoming County, PA

A. Ellsworth	50	Male,	Farmer	born PA	1800
Betsey	30	Fem.		PA	1820
Belinda	3	Fem		PA	1847
Henry	1	Male		PA	1849

Added information on identity: _____

STERNE KEELER

Sterne Keeler	37	Male,	Farmer	born PA	1813
Lydia	25	Fem.	wife	PA	1825
Betsey	4	Fem.		PA	1846
Sarah	2	Fem.		PA	1848

Sterne Keeler is the son of Asa Keeler and Elizabeth Newman and married Lydia, possible Corby. One account says they had a dau. by the name of Elizabeth O. who was born in 1846, no doubt, Betsey

Sterne would be a grandson to Paul Keeler, Jr. and Sarah Burt Cornwall.

JOSEPH OR JAMES FITCH, Wyoming County, PA prob. Falls Township

Joseph Fitch	51	Male, Farmer	born PA	1799
Amy	49	Fem., wife	PA	1801
Nancy	25	Fem.	PA	1825
Franklin	23	Male	PA	1827
Rachael	21	Fem.	PA	1829
Henry ?	19	Male	PA	1831
Sarah	17	Fem.	PA	1833
Joseph	14	Male	PA	1836
Martha	13	Fem.	PA	1837
Caroline	12	Fem.	PA	1838
Hannah	10	Fem.	PA	1840
George	8	Male	PA	1842
Catherine	6	Fem.	PA	1844
Charles	4	Male	PA	1846

This is probably Joseph, 2nd son of Gideon Fitch. Haven't found a connection with a James Fitch of that age catagory. Will correct if I can find other information.

WILLIAM DURLING, Wyoming County, PA. Prob. Falls Township

William Durling	23	Male, Farmer	born PA	1827
Hannah Holmes	60	Fem.	N.Y.	1790
This is probably his mother-in-law or a grandmother on his mother's side
Elizabeth	21	Fem, prob. wife		1829
Amanda	18	Fem.		1832
Holmes	1	Male		1849

This is no doubt William Durling, the grandfather of Del Durling, who we met while in PA. He told us his grandfather, William, was killed while clearing on the John Fitch farm. The tombstone in Roberts Cemetery says he died in 1864 at the age of 36 years which would be just about right. Perhaps his mother-in-law is living with them. Also then Amanda is too old to be the daughter, so not sure who she might be. No different last name. But Holmes is no doubt the child of William and Elizabeth. Also when I copied the place of birth, I was not careful to note whether the rest were born in PA or in NY. Probably Pa at least for Holmes.

M. SHERWOOD, Wyoming County, Falls Township, PA

M. Sherwood	63	Male	born CT	1787
Eliza (Philo?)	63	Fem., wife	CT	1787
Lafayette	25	Male	PA	1825
Elizabeth	23	Fem.	PA	1827
Eliza	10	Fem.	PA	1840

Eliza may be 16 and if so was born in 1834. Possible she was not a daughter, but a granddaughter. ~~This is no doubt Mathew Sherwood the first settler of the Sherwoods. The older children are already married and gone from home.~~ (Zuriel, Matthew, Phineas, Philo) - brothers -

No, must be son of settler Mathew
Mathew Sherwood settled in 1789 & had a son Mathew check dates in cemetery. That may also be the son, not original settler

Original of Matthew already had moved to Ridgeway in 1789

Meaning he was born around the 1755's

PHILO SHERWOOD, Wyoming County, Falls Township, PA 1850

Philo Sherwood	28	Male, Farmer	Born PA	1822
Hannah	24	Fem., wife		1826
Caroline	5	Fem.		1845
Martin	4	Male		1846
Jacob	1	Male		1849

Philo may be a younger son of Matthew Sherwood II and Elizabeth Philo The Philo name comes from Ann (Sickler) Hassold and her Sickler genealogy. I have yet to find a date or reference to Matthew's wife except on the tombstone in Roberts Cemetery. And that does not give her maiden name. Hannah was a Sickler, dau. of Jacob Hannah younger ~~Sister~~ of Jacob who m. Abigail Fitch

---

DANIEL DAILEY, Wyoming County, Falls Township PA. 1850

Daniel Dailey	38	Male	1812
Betsey	36	Fem. wife	1814
Ezekial	15	Male	1835
Mary	12	Fem.	1838
Jane	10	Fem.	1840
Ann	1	Fem.	1849

This may be Gideon's daughter Elizabeth, and if so she was born in the same year that Hannah, Gideon's 1st wife, died, 1814. Wonder if she died in childbirth? Elizabeth is recorded as having married a Dailey, or Daily.

JOHN SICKLER, Wyoming County, Falls Township, PA 1850

John Sickler	36	Male, Lumberman	PA	1814
Sarah	29	Fem., wife	PA	1821
Martin	9	Male	PA	1841
Jefferson	8	Male	PA	1842
???? Prob Andy	5	Male	PA	1845

John Sickler, who married Sarah Fitch, daughter of ~~Seymour~~ Nathaniel Fitch and ~~Elizabeth Johnson~~. Sarah Keeler

---

WILLIAM SICKLER, Wyoming County, PA 1850

William Sickler	30	Male, Lumberman	1820
Sarah	26	Fem., wife	1824
Alonzo	5	Male	1845
Hannah	3	Fem.	1847
Baby	1	Fem.	1849

Not sure who this Sickler was. There was a William Sickler, but he was older and the Sickler brother that was born about 1820 was Hillary. In the handwritten census I could have taken Hillary for William I suppose, but Hillary's wife was Elizabeth. The only other Sickler then who had Sarah for a wife was George, born 1824. Not unusual for them to be called Elizabeth though if their name was Sarah Elizabeth. ASH identifies him as Hillary

JACOB SICKLER, JR., Wyoming County, Falls Township, PA 1850

Jacob Sickler	40	Male, millowner	NY	1810
Abigail (Fitch)	36	Fem., wife	PA	1814
Harvey	18	Male	PA	1832
Riley	17	Male	PA	1833
?????? Helen?	14	Fem.		1836
Perry	12	Male	PA	1838
Caroline	10	Fem.	PA	1840
John	8	Male	PA	1842
Isabel	5	Fem.	PA	1845

Jacob Sickler, Jr., married Abigail Fitch, daughter of Nathaniel Fitch I and Sarah Keeler.

MRS. SICKLER, Wyoming County, Falls Township, PA 1850

Mrs. Sickler	68	Fem.	1782
Fuller Sickler	30	Male, Lumberman	1820
Miles Sickler	19	Male	1831

This is Hannah (Chatfield) Sickler, wife of Jacob Sickler, Sr., and mother of the Sickler boys. Fuller and Miles are two of their sons. We recorded Fuller's birthdate as 1821 and Miles as 1829. Often census reports are off somewhat on the age of the children.

Fuller Sickler later married Sarah Fitch, daughter of Seymour and Miles married Elizabeth Sherwood, daughter of Matthew. II

Also listed with this Mrs. Sickler, I wrote these names, and not sure if they came from her census record or if they were found elsewhere. Peter, Ira, George, J.W. Perhaps they will fit in later. Mrs. Sickler did have a son named George.

Reuben
Preserved -1832
Thaddeus
Abigail

Looks like these Taylors did not die in PA.

The Thaddeus Taylor buried in Roberts Cem. PA (1761-1830) so would be 39 in 1800 our Thaddeus was listed as over 45
(could be that Thad buried is son of Thad, son of Reuben) 1703
Reuben the elder would have been over 45 and his wife too. Born before 1755
Preserved listed as over 45 - wife under

The PA names -

Preserved
Reuben
Noah
Thaddeus

Just shows that the names are in this family.

Another interesting fact is that Abigail married John Lockwood, Jr. brother of Eliz who married John Fitch. (1766 Weston)

Also the name Reuben & Preserved Taylor are found in Ridgefield crossing of what was then termed "The Long Gully" on the east line of section 18—107—64.

On the 15th of May, 1883, Mr. H. Blowers, who had been elected a road supervisor before Jerauld county was born, called on the neighbors and spent the day in rolling stone into the streams and making it passable. That was probably the first "road work" done in the new county.

About the first of June word was received that the lumber for the church had arrived at Wessington station on the C. & N. W. Ry. Hiram Blowers and R. S. Bateman at once went to that place to receive and unload the material. They met a great many people going to or from the station, and among them Mr. Jefferson Sickler, then living at Wessington Springs. Mr. Sickler had with him a wagon and a yoke of oxen and they induced him to haul a load of the lumber home for them. That was the first load of material hauled for the church in Wessington Springs. On the 5th of June Blowers and Bateman came in with two more loads. The church building committee then got together and selected the block upon which the Willard Hotel is situated as the site for the church. There the lumber was unloaded and preparations made to commence work on the foundation, but at the request of the townsite company the location was changed to the block south and to it the society received a deed from the company.

It was a long ways to haul the lumber and the roads, in places, almost impassable. Yet the frame of the structure was up and inclosed in July and on the 26th of August the cornerstone was laid. The ceremony of laying the stone was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. P. Jordan, assisted by Rev. J. G. Campbell. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Hoadley of Huron.

A "mite society" had been organized by the ladies of the church and on the evening of the 29th of August they held, in the church building, their first sociable.

In July Mr. Chas. E. Bourne, of Boston, Mass., purchased a one-fourth interest in the townsite, and was henceforth identified with the growth and development of the town.

In the early spring Jefferson Sickler put up a rough board shanty, 16x32, a little south of where the Kinney store was afterward built, and E. L. Smith and F. Drake later put up another small shanty west of the creek and both of these buildings were used as temporary residences. But the first permanent residence in the town was built by R. M. Magee, in August, on the north side of the creek. That little house is still standing on the ground where it was built and is a part of the residence of Mr. James Barr.

During the same month, August, J. H. Woodburn and L. H. Tarble

Chapter 19.

Jefferson Sickler took the oath of office as a county commissioners on the 4th day of January, 1887. Following the precedent set by preceding commissioners the outgoing board settled with the county treasurer, before Mr. Sickler was sworn in. Ever since then the settlement has been made by the new board.

The new board was organized by the election of Mr. L. G. Wilson as chairman.

Mr. Johnston, the outgoing superintendent, had received $1514.75 as fees and salary during the two years of his term, certainly not a large compensation, but the new board on the 5th of January reduced the salary of that office to $100 yer year.

The True Republican was made the official paper of the county on condition that the paper should publish the minutes of the board and all notices of board meetings free of charge. The legislature then in session passed a law requiring the appointment of three official papers, and on the 5th of April the Jerauld County Journal at Alpena and The Jerauld County Messenger, at Waterbury, were also made official papers, without the aforesaid conditions.

In January 1887 several townships moved for civil township organization. The petition in all but one (Blaine), were granted and elections called for February 1st in Franklin, Marlar, Alpena, Crow, Anina, Chery and Viola. The petition from Blaine township was denied because a remonstrance containing more names than were attached to the petition was filed before the board had acted on the petition. On the day that the petitions were granted the board ordered that all civil township names and boundaries should be the same as the school townships.

The county clerk's salary was increased to $400 per year.

About the first of April, 1887, the county treasurer desired to resign his office and asked the different members of the board to agree to appoint C. E. Thayer in his place. The commissioners refused and Mr. Williams did not resign.

A petition was filed with the county board on the 4th day of April asking them to consent to a change in the place of trial in the Solomon case. After some hesitancy they granted the petition on assurance that the change would obviate the necessity of having a term of court in Jerauld county that year.

April 5th the board declared mustard, Canada thistles and cockle burs to be noxious weeds.

A petition signed by 471 voters was laid before the commissioners on July 7th asking that the question of "local option" be submited to the

The act known as the Omnibus Bill, which enabled South Dakota to prepare for statehood passed congress on the 14th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd was approved and signed by President Cleveland. That year became an era of conventions. Politics of many different brands became the pastime of "all sorts and conditions of men."

A convention at Wessington Springs, January 12th, elected E. V. Miles, C. H. Stephens, J. M. Spears and R. W. Probert delegates to a statehood convention to be held at Huron on the 16th.

A mass temperance convention was held at the county seat on March 28th to prepare for the statehood campaign which was now on.

Jerauld, Buffalo and Hand counties were made the 11th district for representation in the constitutional convention which had been called to meet in Sioux Falls on July 4th, 1889, and were entitled to two delegates, to be elected on the 14th of May.

The Republican district convention to nominate a delegate to the constitutional convention was called to meet at St. Lawrence, in Hand county on May 7th.

The republican county convention to send delegates to the St. Lawrence convention was held at Wessington Springs, May 4th, and S. F. Huntley, of Harmony township received an indorsement for the position of delegate to the Sioux Falls convention. The convention voted that he should select his own delegates, and he named T. L. Blank, E. V. Miles, J. F. Wicks, E. S. Waterbury, A. I. Churchill and O. G. Moodruff, and C. G. Hartley, of Hand county.

Mr. Huntley and C. G. Hartley, of Hand county, were nominated at the St. Lawrence convention and at the election May 14th they were elected delegates to the state constitutional convention.

The opposing Democratic candidates were Jefferson Sickler, of Harmony township, and Mr. Anderson, of Hand county. There are no records of the conventions at which these gentlemen were nominated.

No change was made in the election precincts for the May election, but for that to be held on Oct. 1st each township was made a precinct by itself, and that rule has been followed ever since.

In the constitutional convention Mr. Huntley was a member of the apportionment committee and chairman of the committee on expenses of the convention. On his recommendation Jerauld and Buffalo counties were made one senatorial district.

On July 20th the Republican county committee called two county conventions—one for Aug. 17th to select four delegates to the state convention to be held at Huron and four delegates to the judicial convention to be held at Mitchell, the other to be held Sept. 7th to put in nomination a county ticket and select delegates to the disrict legislative convention.

things about which they knew but little. It was talked in the stores and shops, in the churches and homes, by the road side and in the fields. It was indeed a campaign of education. Men who had graduated from the best colleges in the land, and who could describe nearly every great campaign from the "retreat of the ten thousand," to the surrender of Lee at Appomottox found themselves confronted suddenly with a great national question, involving the civil and commercial history of the world. In a short time nearly all were compelled to admit their ignorance of the subject and then they began to study. Probably at no other time in the history of the world have the voters given such earnest attention to a great public question as was given by the American people to the issues involved in the campaign of 1896.

But two tickets were put in the field in Jerauld county. The populists held their convention on the 12th of September and after recommending the nomination of Jefferson Sickler of Harmony township for state senator, put out the following county ticket:

County Judge—J. H. May.
Register of Deeds—P. T. Varnum.
Auditor—J. A. Paddock.
Treasurer—M. A. Schaefer.
Sheriff—A. Mercer.
Clerk—S. S. Vrooman.
Attorney—J. R. Francis.
Supt. of Schools—T. L. White.
Surveyor—O. J. Marshall.
Coroner—F. T. Tofflemire.

On the same day the commissioners district convention for the 2nd district nominated P. H. Shultz, of Viola township for commissioner.

Later at the legislative convention Mr. Sickler was nominated for the house of representatives.

The Republicans named T. W. Lane, of Crow township, for the senate and O. T. Dye, of Buffalo county, for the house. For the county ticket they named for Auditor—Ray Barber.

Register of Deeds—D. F. Moulton.
Sheriff—John E. White.
Judge—C. D. Brown.
Attorney—C. W. McDonald.
Clerk of Courts—W. F. Bancroft.
Supt. of Schools—Miss Anna Hanebuth.
Treasurer—S. B. Tidd.
Surveyor—H. J. Wallace.

On June 16th Andrew Mercer purchased of John Woods the Alpena meat market.

At 7 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5th, 1900, the first ring of a telephone bell was heard in Alpena and the village was then in close touch with all the surrounding towns.

In the fall of the year the Sioux Falls brewing company attempted to establish a wholesale and retail liquor store in Alpena, but the concern was of short duration.

The Wessington Springs school house which had been purchased for church purpose by the Ev. Luth. Zion Church and moved to the south part of Alpena Township, was dedicated May 13th, 1900, with Rev. Lack as pastor.

Rev. R. A. Brough was engaged as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Alpena, beginning his work on May 13th. The conference appointee for the M. E. Church, made in October, was Rev. W. B. Stewart.

The year 1900 being the time for a presidential election the Republicans of Jerauld County hoped to recover some more of the political field that had so long been occupied by their opponents. The election, though lacking much of the bitterness that had characterized former campaigns, was hotly contested for the more important offices. The tickets placed in nomination were as follows:

Republican:

Senator—L. N. Loomis.
Representative—A. J. Wooledge.
Treasurer—Geo. R. Bateman.
Auditor—W. H. McMillan.
Register of Deeds—W. B. Wilson.
Attorney—N. J. Dunham.
Sheriff—Wm. Brodkorb.
Judge—C. W. McDonald.
Clerk of Courts—W. F. Taylor.
County Supt.—E. H. Wood.
Coroner—Dr. J. E. Shull.
Commissioner, 1st Dist.—Gus. A. Newman.

Populists:

Senator—Jefferson Sickler.
Representative—G. S. Nelson.
Treasurer—T. L. White.
Auditor—Wm. Zuik.
Register of Deeds—Wesley Brownell.

ered in droves about the tree claims and groves. It was no unusual thing to see several hundred of them in a single grove. The grass and unhusked corn was deep under the snow and only the trees were left for them to eat. The snow was from ten to twenty feet deep in all groves and this enabled the rabbits to reach the young and tender limbs. On the branches and bark of the trees the animals fed. The damage was great. Hunting parties were formed and large numbers of rabbits killed to save the trees.

In Chery township a series of Demorest medal contests were held during the forepart of the year and created great interest.

In the latter part of October, the Stock P. O. was discontinued for a time because the postmaster resigned and moved away.

The Templeton post office which had in the spring of 1889 been relocated on the northeast corner of section 35 in Harmony township, at the residence of C. G. Smith, postmaster, changed hands in the spring of 1896, by the resignation of Mr. Smith. Mr. J. R. Eddy, the new postmaster, purchased the house in which the office had been kept and moved it a half mile east where it was held until he could get permission from the government to take it to his residence on the east side of section 25 of the same township. The permission was granted in June and the office continued its journey to the new postmaster's home. Mr. Eddy then purchased a stock of goods and opened what has even since been known as the Templeton store.

The commencement exercises of 1896 at the Seminary occurred on June 10th. The class had as members, Mary E. Huntley, F. Loren Kent, Roy Campbell, and Cora Sickler.

About April 1st C. W. Lane sold his Bank of Wessington Springs to H. J. Wallace and L. N. Loomis.

The diploma and bronze medal, won by the Wessington Springs Seminary at the Chicago Worlds' Fair was received by the institution about the 20th of June. These mementos are still preserved among the treasures of the school.

In August a co-operative grain company was formed at Wessington Springs with O. O. England, Prest., and R. S. Vessey, Sec. The purpose of this company was to furnish a grain and coal market in Wessington Springs during the fall and winter. In the following April the company dissolved, having accomplished its purpose. It had purchased over 25,000 bu. of grain and handled 435 tons of coal. During the long, hard winter of 1896-97 the local market for coal afforded by this company relieved distress in hundreds of instances.

On account of failing health Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Freeland resigned from the Seminary faculty in July and moved to California.

Mrs. Julius Smith opened a millinery stock May 23rd, in a building owned by T. H. Null west of Morse & La Pont's hardware store, but it also was of short duration.

The closing exercises of the first year of the Seminary occurred on the afternoon of June 14th, 1888. The students who had a part in these exercises were Dale Wallace, Maude Spears, Cora Sickler, Walter Bateman, Gertie Anderson, Walter Mathias, Matie Mercer, F. E. Gaffin, Chas. Ford, Nellie Vessey, Effie Crow, Kara Snart, A. C. Thompson, Lena Crow, John Bremner, James Osborne and Lulu Smart.

The first harness shop in Wessington Springs was started by R. E. Ketchum in June, 1888. Another shop was opened soon after by C. N. Hall and in the following winter Mr. Ketchum moved his work to his home on Sec. 31 in Marlar township.

December 5th, 1888. Some one threw a burning cigar stub into the street. A strong northwest wind picked it up and tumbled it into a pile of street refuse that had accumulated under the platform in front of Albert & Vessey's store.

By midnight all the town was asleep—all but John R. Francis, who, as was his custom, sat in the office of the Tarbell hotel reading by the light of a kerosene lamp. About 2 o'clock he chanced to glance out of the window and saw a small jet af flame leap up under the store front. A cup of water would have extinguished it. He sprang to the water pail that usually stood on the wash stand in the hotel office. It was empty. He shouted "fire" and ran to the kitchen to get a pail of water from there. That pail was empty. He took it and ran to the east door of the kitchen to get water from the barrels that usually stood just outside in a wagon. The door was locked and the key gone. He ran out through the office and around to the wagon, still shouting "fire! fire!" The barrels were empty. Not a drop of water nearer than the creek. He ran to that, all the time sounding the alarm. As he passed the fire a pail full of water would have put it out. But the wind was fanning it and scattering the sparks. By the time he returned from the stream a crowd was gathering, but the flames were beyond control. In an hour the store was in ashes, the Tarbell hotel was in ruins with its stables and sheds, together with Hackett's real estate office and the oil-shed belonging to the hardware store. There was no snow on the ground and a prairie fire went racing off southeast before the wind. The hotel was never rebuilt. The mercantile firm went into the Stephens' building and was soon doing business again.

Fitch Reunion 1910 from Don Fitch:

(Copied from the original newspaper clipping which I have in my possession, very fragile) Marge Gray, granddaughter of Gertrude Neola Fitch born 1868, PA.

"The annual reunion of the Fitch family was held at Lake Winola on Thursday, September 1, and was attended by approximately 150 members of the family and their friends. All in attendance enjoyed a delightful day and during the afternoon, when the business meeting was held, the following officers were elected to serve during the en-suing year. President, DR Fitch; Vice-presidents, G.J. Fitch and Joseph Fitch; sec-retary, Albert Fitch; Assistant secretary, Archie D. Miller; Historian, Pearle C. Fitch. The historian read the following history of the family.....we have this history in other places so will not add it here. Some of it is wrong

The next reunion will be held at Lehigh Park, Falls, PA in 1911. Among those in attendance were:

THIS ACCOUNT OF THE HISTORY OF THE FITCH FAMILY WAS GIVEN AT THE 1910 FITCH REUNION THAT WAS HELD AT LAKE WINOLA, PA.

"From authentic records obtained from reliable sources, it is found that the Fitch family are descended from one of the oldest Anglo Saxon families of England which came over from Germany, it is currently supposed, at the time the country was subdued by ??? and ??? their powers when the ancient Britons were driven to the mountains of Wales and //C// wall (probably Cornwall), and the Saxon heptarchy was formed.

In the Heralds Office in London the Genealogy of the Fitch family is quite full, much more so than common. From records found in Essex county, England, the principle seat of the Fitch family, their pedigree has been traced back, step by step, to William, second son of John Fitch, who was living in Fitch Castle in the northwest of Essex County, in the 22nd year of the reign of Edward I, in the year 1294, two hundred years before Columbus discovered America.

Few families can date back so far as the Fitch family name was written, "Fytche, Ffytche, Ffytch, and Fytch. Some branches of the family, in England still retain one or another of these forms. The family originated in Germany and the first traces of it reach back to within a few centuries of the Christian era.

Sir Thomas Fitch, a lineal descendant of Baron Fitch married Annie Pew, August 6, 1611. He died in Braintree, Essex county, England, leaving a widow and several sons who came to this country between the years, 1634 and 1636, having sold the family estate which was situated in the town of Birch in Essex County. They arrived in this country as follows:

Jeremiah Fitch, John Fitch, and James Fitch on the Ship Defiance and landed at Boston in the year 1634. Richard Fitch, Samuel Fitch and Thomas Fitch in 1635. Joseph Fitch arrived in 1639.

The Rev. James Fitch settled in Saybrook, Conn. Afterward removing to Norwich, Conn., and was the ancestor of the Windham and Lebanon Fitches.

Thomas Fitch and his brother, Joseph, settled in Norwalk, Conn., were planters and with their neighbors purchased a tract of land from Runckinheage and other Indian Chiefs by deed, February 15, 1651. In 1665 (not sure of the last number) Thomas was the wealthiest citizen of Norwalk. From him in a line of three generations descended, Thomas Fitch who held many positions of trust, was Judge, Chief Justice, Lieut. Governor, and governor 16 (also looks like 46 years) being governor of the colony from 1754 to 1766, was a graduate of Yale College in 1721, was an eloquent speaker, accomplished scholar, and able jurist, and a Christian gentleman."

The above was sent as being taken from the newspaper clipping of Marge Gray on this reunion. The historian was supposed to be Pearle C. Fitch. There are some definite errors in the above. No way to prove about the German background at this time. It may be so. But the listing of the brothers who came to America and when they came seems to be faulty. Rev. James was born in 1622 and his tombstone says that he came to America when he was 16 years old and that date would be 1638, not 1634. Doubtful that he would have come when he was only 12.

The brother John Fitch seems to have died in England (per John T. Fitch) and did not come to America. Brother Nathaniel did die in England in 1648. The Jeremiah, John, and James who came in 1634 were probably of another family.....relation perhaps.

Thomas and Joseph did come to Norwalk to plant the town there and had a couple of the first plots of land in that town, but not the very first. They apparently came shortly after the forming of the town of Norwalk. Thomas states that he lost all his fortune in the civil war that was fought in England and it took most of the rest of it to bring his family to America. Giving the impression that he did not come until after that war which was fought in the 1640s. If Nathaniel died in 1648, they probably did not come until after that. The brothers are listed in Nathaniel's will. We do not find any other record of Thomas or Joseph in any other town in America any earlier. Rev. James can be found in Saybrook and Norwich and we have his marriage to Abigail Whitefield in Guilford, or of Guilford, in the late 1640's. He was under the teaching of Rev. Hooker who made his early home in Hartford. So Rev. James probably moved from Hartford to Saybrook when he became pastor of the church there. After the death of Abigail, he took part of his church to Norwich and began a work there where he lived the rest of his life.

Joseph left the town of Norwalk early and moved on. Thomas stayed and was one of the wealthiest citizens of that town and instrumental in the governing of it.

Thomas Fitch, Governor, was in the fourth generation, Thomas I, Thomas II, Thomas III, and Thomas IV was the governor. He also had a son named Thomas V.

It would appear now that this (The Nathaniel Fitch and Sarah Keeler) branch of the Fitch family did come down through Thomas Fitch who helped to found Norwalk, but not through the Governor.

Do not know for sure about a Jeremiah.....there was a son listed as Jeremy (JTF)
Also do not know of a Richard in this family.

Samuel did settle in America and his mother may have lived with him.

According to John Townsend Fitch, who has done much research and written books on the subject the children were:

Thomas Fitch, born 1612, died in Norwalk
John, who died in England
Rev. James, born Dec. 24, 1622, died 1702, Lebanon, CT
Nathaniel, born 1623, died 1648 in England
Jeremy, born 1625, died in England
Samuel, born 1626, died Milford, CT. 1659
Joseph, living in Windsor, CT., in 1713....ancestor of Steamboat John Elizabeth, bapt. 1615 at Bocking, England
Mary, born 1629, England
Anne, born 1630, England
Sarah, born 1631, England

These children were all born at Bocking, England.

Rachael Miller was the daughter of Newman Miller and Caroline Jenkins. Nancy Fitch was married to Elijah Jenkins. Both Caroline and Elijah died and Newman and Nancy got married to each other.

Not sure where these Fitches go:

_____ Fitch	&	Sabora Parks
George Fitch	&	Olive Weaver (Waters) moved to Minnesota 1855

Joseph, son of Gideon had a son named George, born in 1842. Seems too late.

Betsey Fitch	&	Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. married 6-5-1803
Sally Fitch, dau. of John Fitch	&	Uriah Smith, married 3-23-1806

Because of the marriage dates it would seem that both of these girls might be daughters of John Fitch. There was a Betsey Fitch, born 5-20-1784 in Stamford to John and Molly Fitch. This may or may not be her.

GILES FITCH from Portrait and Biographical record of Wyoming and Lackawanna County, PA:

Giles Fitch, Sr., early learned the blacksmith trade and in partnership with his brother, Nathaniel, engaged in the manufacture of guns, turning every part by hand, making some very handsome ones, showing superior workmanship. Giles also became a shoemaker and a carpenter, always making his own shoes and built the house himself in which he lived the latter part of his life on his farm in Falls Township. He enjoyed best the hours spent in his shop and always took pride in keeping in repair the wagon which his grandfather, John Fitch, drove through the woods from Connecticut.

Giles Fitch was born June 9, 1804 and died July 19, 1853 at the age of about 53. He is buried in Roberts Cemetery, Falls Township, Wyoming County, PA.

He married Emily Goodale who was born July 19, 1805/6 and died August 3, 1873 and she is also buried in Roberts Cemetery. They were married on February 17, 1831. Emily's mother was named Hannah and she was living with them when she died.

Their children were Asher, Hannah, Giles Jr., Melissa, James, and a "Hammil"?

1. Asher, born 1833, and died Feb. 26, 1914, according to tombstone inscription. He married Rachel Miller, daughter of Newman Miller and Caroline Jenkins and they had 7 children. They were married in 1859. Rachel born August 26, 1839 and died March 15, 1899 at the age of 60 years. Was counted in the census up to 1910.

2. Hannah, born about 1840, died 1929, married Andrew M. DeWitt at the home of the bride's father on February 12, 1863.. Apparently named for her grandmother Goodale.

3. Giles, Jr., born about 1855 (?) married "Maggie" H. Armstrong on Jan. 1, 1867

4. Melissa, born about 1849, married an Osterhout

5. James, born about 1838, married Jennie McKune

The family of Asher Fitch and Rachel Miller were as follows:

1. Emily, who married J.M. Sickler
2. Newman M., born July 7, 1863, married on Sept. 6, 1894, Grace Stark
3. Jenny who maried in 1889, Charles Walter
4. Albert, who married in 1894, Sarah Turner
5. Nelly who died in 1873, age of 5
6. Stephen G., born May 23, 1871, who married on Jan. 8, 1896, Ella Kipp
7. Martha, born April 13, 1874, died 1955, apparently unmarried, lived Scranton

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

This may not be our Gideon Fitch because in 1810 his household consisted of 2 girls & 2 boys younger than 10
meaning they would be born between 1800 & 1810

Conceivably he could have been married in 1791 and had John in 1792 but where were the rest of the children and the ones
~~in the 2nd family were born after 1810.~~

~~Wrong - that was 1800~~

Farenip Daw was an eccentric Methodist preacher

LORENZO DOW, pioneer preacher.....account written by Robert William Mondy in his book "Pioneers and Preachers". Pages 233, 234, 235

"Frontier life spawned some rather eccentric preachers, one of whom was Lorenzo Dow, know as 'Crazy Dow'. His odd behavior and extensive travels both in America and abroad brought him much publicity and fame. As a fortune teller, seer, miracle worker, professor of calamities, births, deaths, and illnesses, and interpreter of dreams, he was one of the most discussed and controversial preachers of his day. He could preach on virtually any subject and damned nearly everyone and everything. At times he shocked his congregations by preaching from obscene and sadistic portions of the Old Testament.

Tall, slender, and spare of frame, with sloping shoulders and just a hint of a stoop, Dow's physical appearance normally would not have seemed forbidding, except for the fact that his matted and unkempt hair hung almost to his waist; much of it hung down his back and on his shoulders, but some of it fell forward over his face and full beard. With a grave countenance and piercing eyes, he 'glanced reproofs wherever he looked' and caused the hardest sinners to flinch. He was emaciated from lack of proper food and sleep, and he knew little about the benefits of a bath. He went hatless and shoeless, wearing torn and shabby clothes. Dow presented an odd sight, even to the backwoodsmen.

When he came in possession of any money, which was rare, he soon lost it to a swindler. When he bought a horse, it was usually a spavined, ill-looking brute, scarcely able to totter along the trails and roads. Trusting in God to send angels and ravens to feed him, he usually begged for food from door to door. Rumor said that when unable to find food, he ate grasshoppers. Dow had hidden powers of endurance.

Dow's voice sounded more female than male, not loud but trenchant. He often dragged some of the syllables of his words to painful lengths making them disgusting and disagreeable to delicate ears. While preaching for several successive days at Pittstown, New York, some of the members of his congregation thought that he was either crazy or possessed of the Devil. After hearing the strange man preach, many people cursed and swore, partly because of what he said, but mostly because of his peculiar speech and odd demeanor. Most people detested him...some believed he was saucy and deserved to be knocked down.

Eccentric in the extreme, Dow eventually evolved techniques through trial and error that often made him a very effective preacher. One Sunday morning while Reverend Jacob Young was preaching at a camp meeting, Dow lay sick in a tent nearby. At the close of Young's serman the sick minister rose from his bed and walked up to the pulpit. Standing there in a stooped position, looking over his right shoulder, his back to the congregation, he said, ' There is a notable robber in this country, who has done a vast deal of mischief, and is still doing it; and, in order that the people may be on their guard, I intend to give you a full description of this character and the instrument by which he carried on his work.' The congregation was often plagued by outlaws and became alarmed. Some people thought that Dow was referring to a Baptist minister who had been a Tory and a thief during the American Revolution. This man had fled to escape punishment after the war to Spanish territory where he supposedly had become a respectable citizen.

But, this was not so. Dow was only trying to grab the attention of the congregation. He turned his face toward the assembly and began talking slowly in a dark and mysterious manner, eventually giving the robber's name in Hebrew, in Greek, and in English. The evil one was none other than the Devil. For the remainder of the sermon, Dow preached to a rapt audience and many conversions were gained.

In closing one serman, Dow said, 'If there is any gentleman in the congregation who has any objection to my sermon, let him come forward, take the stand and make it known.' There were five Calvinist ministers in the congregation and Dow expected a rebuttal, but none came. After standing silent for a few moments, Dow continued, 'Now, gentlemen, I am going to leave the country, and, if you do not come forward and defend your doctrine while I am present, but attempt to contradict my sermon when I am gone, someone may compare you to the little dog that does not have the courage to bark at the traveler when he is opposite to the gate, but will run along and bark on his track after he is gone!' Dow closed the meeting with a prayer and left unceremoniously.

When Dow arrived at one camp meeting ground, several settlers moved toward him shouting in satisfaction that the 'wild man' was coming. Dow did present a bizarre appearance. He wore a tarpaulin hat cocked on his head, a tattered green military coatee without its shiny ornaments, and a pair of knee breeches that did not conceal his knees. Dow was in a hurry and he was laden with a bundle of tracts and handbills. On each bill was printed in large letters the following words: 'Hush! Hark! This afternoon at three o'clock, Lorenzo Dow will preach under the Federal Oaks.' Dow rushed past one man without giving him a handbill. He stopped abruptly and appeared to search the innermost recesses of his soul for guidance, after which he handed out the first tract. He passed several other people ignoring them as if they lived on another planet. He continued this unusual and scattered distribution until all his bills were gone.

Although Francis Asbury believed Dow demented, he wisely never interferred with the miracle worker. In time, when Asbury believed that Dow was not excercising a good influence on the people east of the Appalachian Mountains, he sent him to the western frontier. In the thinly populated western areas, Dow gained unusual fame and became venerated as a prophet of the Lord.

It did not take long for a preacher on the frontier to learn the importance of emotional release to the frontier people. The successful ministers were able to sway the behavior of the congregation in ways which today would appear unusual. Falling and jerking were common. Because the frontiersmen were themselves an odd lot by today's standards, some eccentric preachers were quite acceptable on the frontier. Unusual pulpit behavior and offbeat sermons often resulted. But, as the frontier disappeared and organized churches moved into an area, it gradually became less acceptable for ministers to move their congregations to such physical and emotional levels."

The account of Lorenzo Dow by this man may have some truth in it as many of the preachers of that day seemed an odd lot to later generations. I will have to look for other accounts of this man. But he must have been "venerated" by some of the people as some named their children after him..... Such as Gideon Fitch, who named his last son, Lorenzo Dow Fitch. Lorenzo Dow Fitch was born in 1825. Will have to look for the dates for the preacher, Lorenzo Dow.

The man who wrote this account was probably not a theological scholar himself, and though many look upon the behavior of the preachers and the congregations, such as falling and jerking, as being brought on by self-hypotism or just emotionalism, recent experiences, such as this, bring about the possibility that it is more than just emotionalism. In this day many think just as this author and those he used as authorities from past times that it is very strange and bizarre behaviour. Some, being very wise, will not comment either one way or the other. Even Asbury could not be sure it was not of the Lord, so let Dow preach even though he tried to remove him from where they thought he could do the most harm!

The reference to being a fortune teller, can just be one man's opinion on the fact that Lorenzo Dow had some spiritual quality that made him able to be a "seer" and able to look into the future. Not that he could do that on his own, but that God can raise the curtain at times for anyone who is a prophet for the Lord. Prophets are a strange lot, even in this day. Some of his Dow's qualities look strangely familiar to me, like passing out tracts to those that God leads him to. Only God will be the judge of this man and his "qualities". We should not do it, but I will want to find out more about him and see what the other spiritual men of his day might have thought about his strange ways. Some of the greatest preachers of that day had to contend with the odd behavior of their people who fell and jerked, and laughed and cried, and shouted, and hopped and danced, when it may have not seemed appropriate at the time. Let God be their judge.

After John Fitch died in 1831 Lucinda married Benjamin Culver. Is it possible Lucinda was Lucinda Avery? Since their first son was named Avery, it is possible. But also John's sister married Avery Ellsworth, but that marriage may not have taken place before John had his son, Avery. In the will, Lucy is named, but she may be Lucinda. And Polly is named, and might be Mary.
